Service of Praise

Processional Hymn      Just A Closer Walk with Thee

I seem weak but you are strong; Jesus, keep me from all wrong; I'll be satisfied as long, as I'll be, let me be close to thee.

*Just a closer walk with thee, grant it, Jesus, if you please?
Daily staying close to thee, let it be, dear Lord, let it be.*

Through this world of toil and snares, if I falter, Lord, who cares? Who with me my burden shares? None but thee, dear Lord, none but thee.

*Just a closer walk with thee, grant it, Jesus, if you please?
Daily staying close to thee, let it be, dear Lord, let it be.*

*When my earthly time is o'er, still I'll be loved ever more;
You will guide me safely o'er to your friendly shore, to your shore.*

*Just a closer walk with thee, grant it, Jesus, if you please?
Daily staying close to thee, let it be, dear Lord, let it be.*

Opening Litany

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One: This is God's house. May we who come here not only find out about God, but find God.

All: May there be beauty in this place, but especially may it be a place where we become aware of the beauty in ourselves.

One: May this be a place of worship, of instruction, of singing, of prayer.

All: And for us who worship and take instruction and sing and pray, may this also be a place of inner stillness, where we may listen and hear when God speaks.

One: May this be such a house that Jesus Christ, or any stranger, would feel in it that they were with friends.

All: May everyone come into this house in expectation and go with thanksgiving. May each person receive the blessing they need most.

Sung Response

Amen. Amen. Amen.

Please be seated.

Service of Proclamation

Wisdom of Malinda Cramer

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

"It was early one morning in the year 1885, during an hour of earnest meditation and prayerful seeking, that I asked...with faith...with a willingness to abide the decision whatever it might be: '...is there any power in the vast universe that can heal me?' An immediate and all convincing reply came...it was not as one person speaking to another; it was, instead an intuitive response from the depths of Being...The answer to my earnest inquiry, as to whether there was any power that could heal me, was an all absorbing realization of a presence and power not before realized. This presence was more than personal, it was omnipresence...It was so vivifying and illuminating I knew that I was one with it. I realized it to be my life; the very being, knowledge, health and power that I am. It was a 'consuming fire,' in that all things became It and were this One Presence manifested. Simultaneously with finding myself in God, I experienced the indrawing of all things, i.e., that all are in the embrace of one eternal Good...That hour was the beginning of my realization of the oneness of Life..."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A Reading from the Fourth Gospel (5.1-17)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Jesus went up to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish feasts. Now in Jerusalem, by the Sheep Gate, there is a pool that in Hebrew is called Bethesda. It has five porticos, and in these a large number of people would rest, many were blind, lame, and paralyzed, waiting for the movement of the water.

For occasionally an angel of the Lord would come down into the pool and stir up the water. The first one into the pool after each such disturbance would be cured.

A man who was there had been very ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and was aware that he had been ill for a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to get well?" The man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I am still on my way, someone else steps into the pool ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Rise! Take up your mat and walk!" Immediately, the man was cured, and he took up his mat and began to walk.

Now that day was a Sabbath. Therefore, the religious authorities said to the man who had been cured, "Today is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat." He replied, "The man who cured me said to me, 'Take up your mat and walk!' " They asked him, "Who is the man who told you to take it up and walk?" But the man who had been cured did not know who it was, for Jesus had disappeared into the crowd that was there.

Later, Jesus found him in the temple... The man went away and told the religious authorities that Jesus was the one who had made him well. Therefore, the religious authorities began to harass Jesus because he was doing such things on the Sabbath. However, Jesus responded to them, saying,

"God is still working, and I am at work as well."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

One: For the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, for all who are on our prayer list, for our loved ones, for world and community leaders, and for our own needs, let us pray:

Prayer of Divine Mercy

*Loving Creator, we remember the wisdom and love, Peace and integrity of your blessed anointed one –
 our Lord Jesus Christ
 Who taught of your love for us and also the whole world*

For the sake of your infinite goodness please smile upon us and on the whole world.

For the sake of your infinite goodness please smile upon us and on the whole world.

For the sake of your infinite goodness please smile upon us and on the whole world.

*Holy God, holy mighty One, holy immortal One Give blessings to us and to the whole world.
 Holy God, holy mighty One, holy immortal One Give blessings to us and to the whole world.*

One: And with people all over the world we pray –
 All: May peace prevail on earth.

These prayers we offer in the spirit of Jesus, son of Mary, and as he did we continue to pray:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
 Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Words of Remembrance

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: On the night of his arrest Jesus shared a meal with his friends and family of choice. After supper, he took a piece of bread, broke it, and offered it to those at table. Sharing together made them one body. Jesus said, "When you do this, (+) remember me."

One: He then took a cup of wine and shared it with the others. Sharing reminded them that they were bound together in a covenant of love. Jesus again said, "When you do this, (+) remember me."

Chorus

*Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo!
 Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!*

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

I Love Myself the Way I Am

*I love myself the way I am, there's nothing I need to change.
 I'll always be the perfect me, there's nothing to rearrange.
 I'm beautiful and capable of being the best me I can; and I love myself just the way I am.*

*I love you, the way you are, there's nothing you need to do.
 When I feel the love inside, it's easy to love you.
 Behind your fears, your rage and tears, I see your shining star, and I love you just the way you are.*

*I love the world the way it is, 'cause I can clearly see that all the things I judge are done by people just like me.
 So 'til the birth of peace on earth that only love can bring,
 I'll help it grow by loving everything.*

*I love myself the way I am, and still I want to grow, but change outside can only come when deep inside I know:
 I'm beautiful and capable of being the best me I can; and I love myself just the way I am.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: Stormé DeLarverie (1920-2014) a biracial, butch lesbian, DeLarverie was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, and was a performer. As a teenager, she joined the Ringling Brothers Circus where she rode jumping horses. Then from 1955 to 1969, DeLarverie toured the Black theater circuit as the MC — and only drag king — of the Jewel Box Revue, the first racially integrated drag revue in North America. She worked as a bouncer for several lesbian bars in New York City in the '80s and '90s, and held a number of leadership positions in the Stonewall Veterans Association. DeLarverie also served the community as a volunteer street patrol worker, and as a result, was called the "guardian of lesbians in the Village." Beyond her LGBTQ activism, DeLarverie also organized and performed at fundraisers for women who suffered from domestic violence and their children.

TODAY'S CONTEMPORARY READING – is by Malinda Cramer, who in 1888 had a mystical experience whereby she knew God to be omnipresent, everywhere fully present. This realization led to a dramatic improvement in her health. This experience is considered the birth of the Divine Science movement, a New Thought Christian philosophy focusing on the omnipresence and infinite goodness of God.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

February 13: Ss. Polyeuct & Nearchus (3rd century) - Nearchus was Christian, but Polyeuct was not. Polyeuct converted from paganism to Christianity for Nearchus. In 259 Polyeuct was martyred by decapitation. Shortly before he was executed, he spoke his last words to Nearchus: "Remember our secret vow." Thus Polyeuct is known as a protector of vows and avenger of broken promises.

Absolom Jones (1746 – 1818) - a former slave that would become the first African American Episcopal Priest in the newly formed United States of America. Jones preached that God was a loving Parent who always took the side of “the oppressed and distressed.”

February 14: St. Valentine (d. 269)—Martyr. Though St. Valentine has long since removed from the lists of ‘official’ saints, Valentine’s Day has been taken over by the greeting card industry and become fixed in the popular calendar of most people. It seems to have its origins in England, where it was noted that birds began to pair and mate around the feast of St. Valentine. The original Valentine was likely a Christian priest in Rome who was beheaded for refusing to renounce his faith. He gave his heart to God, his divine lover.

James A. Pike (1913 – 1969) - early proponent of ordination of women, racial desegregation, and the acceptance of LGBT people in the Church. He was the Bishop of California in The Episcopal Church. He held two law degrees from Yale and a seminary degree from Union Theological Seminary in NYC. Pike invited Martin Luther King Jr. to speak at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco in 1965 following his march to Selma. After his son’s untimely death, Pike became interested in the paranormal (he even tried to reach his late son through psychics). He died in the Israeli desert while researching a book he wanted to write (coincidentally, about Jesus wandering in the desert). His rented car got stuck and he and his wife Diane tried to walk to safety, but were farther away from any community than they realized. While wandering lost in the desert, Pike fell down a steep canyon where he died. Diane found help and survived.

February 16: Janani Luwum (1924-1977)—Anglican Archbishop of Uganda and martyr. Luwum was Archbishop of Uganda during the dictatorship of General Idi Amin. He was not the type to be drawn toward social justice issues or protests; he tried at first to maintain a neutral stance of cooperation. Luwum realized the church could no longer stand silently by as Amin’s paranoid reign of terror led to the murder of tens of thousands. He was confronted with trumped up charges, and when ordered to sign a confession he responded by praying. This sent Amin into a rage, and he drew a pistol and executed Luwum himself.

February 17: Giordano Bruno (1548 – 1600) - taught that God is everywhere imminent throughout the universe. Bruno was an Italian poet and philosopher who wrote, “God is the Principle of unity in all activity and is the Principle of Oneness...” Referring to divine Mind, he held that Mind and matter are one.

February 18: Martin Luther (1483-1546)—Reformer of the Church. Originally trained as a lawyer, Luther was ordained a priest and taught theology at the University of Wittenberg. Luther was also a musician, and his most famous hymn was “A Mighty Fortress is Our God.”
