Sunshine Cathedral Affirmation

Sunshine Cathedral is a different kind of church where the past is past and the future has infinite possibilities.

The Call to Worship

Alleluia, Christ is risen.

Christ is risen, indeed. Alleluia!

Service of Praise

Processional Hymn O Day of Light and Gladness

*O day of light and gladness, of prophecy and song, what thoughts within us waken, what hallowed mem'ries throng!
The soul's horizon widens, past, present, future blend; and rises on our vision the life that has no end.*

*Earth feels the season's joyance; from mountain range to sea the tides of life and flowing fresh, manifold, and free.
In valley and on upland, by forest pathways dim, all nature lifts in chorus the resurrection hymn.*

*O Dawn of life eternal, to thee our hearts upraise the Easter song of gladness, the Passover of praise.
Thine are the many mansions, the dead die not to thee,
who fillest from thy fullness time and eternity.*

Eastertide Litany
(by Sara Moores Campbell)

Rev Kevin Tisdol

One: In the tomb of the soul, we carry secret yearnings, pains, frustrations, loneliness, fears, regrets, worries.

All: In the tomb of the soul, we take refuge from the world and its heaviness.

One: In the tomb of the soul, we wrap ourselves in the security of darkness.

All: Sometimes this is a comfort. Sometimes it is an escape.

One: Sometimes it prepares us for experience. Sometimes it insulates us from life.

All: Sometimes this tomb-life gives us time to feel the pain of the world and reach out to heal others. Sometimes it numbs us and locks us up with our own concerns.

One: In this season where light and dark balance the day, we seek balance for ourselves.

All: Grateful for the darkness that has nourished us, we push away the stone and invite the light to awaken us to the possibilities within us and among us – possibilities for new life in ourselves and in our world.

Sung Response

Now the Green Blade Rises

Now the green blade rises from the buried grain; wheat that in dark earth for many days has lain; Love lives again, that with the dead has been: Love is come again like wheat that rises green.

When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain, Christ's warm touch can call us back to life again, fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been: Love is come again like wheat that rises green.

Please be seated.

Service of Proclamation

The Wisdom of Brother Chidananda

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

"The ultimate triumph of Jesus' resurrection was the culmination of countless smaller inner victories of soul over ego consciousness. In our own lives, we have daily opportunities to emulate that Christ-way of living. The world prompts us to follow the ego's impulses — our likes and dislikes; the dictates of the senses, emotions, or habits — to pay scant attention to the wiser guidance of soul-intuition.
But each time we exercise conscious attention and will to heed the happiness-bestowing voice of conscience — to harmonize with eternal values and principles taught by Jesus, Krishna, and all great masters — we have taken another step toward resurrection... The perennial promise of Easter [is] that God's light and love will ever prevail."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (17.16-31)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

While Paul was...in Athens, he was outraged to note that the city was full of idols. Therefore, he debated in the synagogue with the Jews and the Gentile God-Worshippers, and also in the city square with whoever chanced to be there. Even a few Epicurean and Stoic philosophers argued with him. Some asked, "What is this man babbling about?" Others said, "Apparently, he is here to promote foreign deities," because he was preaching about Jesus and the resurrection.

Therefore, they took him and brought him to the Areopagus and asked him, "Can you explain to us what this new doctrine is that you are teaching? You are presenting strange ideas to us, and we would like to find out what they all mean." The major pastime of the Athenians and the foreigners living there was to spend their time telling or listening to the latest ideas.

Then Paul stood before them in the Areopagus and said: "People of Athens, I have seen how religious you are. For as I walked around, looking carefully at your shrines, I noticed among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an Unknown God.' What, therefore, you worship as unknown, I now proclaim to you.

"The God who made the world and everything in it, the sovereign of heaven and earth, does not dwell in shrines made by human hands. Nor is God served by human hands as though God could need anything. Rather, it is God who gives to everyone life and breath and all other things...God did this so that people might seek God in the hope that by groping for Truth they might find It, even though indeed the true God is not far from any one of us. For 'In God we live and move and have our being.' As even your own poets have said, 'We are all God's offspring.'

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like an image of gold or silver or stone, fashioned by human art and imagination. God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, but now commands people everywhere to [wake up]...[and the wakeup call] was raising a chosen one from the dead."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response

No Day But Today

There's only us, there's only this. Forget regret, or life is yours to miss. No other road, no other way, no day but today.

I can't control my destiny. I trust my soul, my only goal is just to be. There's only now, there's only here. Give into love, or live in fear. No other road, no other way, no day but today. No day but today.

Please be seated.

Invitation to Prayer

Prayer Chorus

Faith of the Heart

*It's been a long road, getting from there to here.
It's been a long time, but my time is finally here.*

*And I will see my dream come alive at last.
I will touch the sky. And they're not gonna hold me down no more, no they're not gonna hold me down.*

*'coz I've got faith of the heart.
I'm going where my heart will take me.
I've got faith to believe I can do anything.*

I've got strength of the soul, and no one's gonna bend or break me.

*I can reach any star. I've got faith.
I've got faith, faith of the heart.*

Pastoral Prayer and Affirmations

Sign of Peace

Lean on Me

*Some times in our lives we all have pain, we all have sorrow. But if we are wise we know that there's always tomorrow. Lean on me when you're not strong - and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long
'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.*

*Please swallow your pride if I have things you need to borrow. But no one can fill those of your needs that you won't let show. Lean on me when you're not strong - and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long
'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.*

*Just call on me dearest when you need a hand. We all need somebody to lean on. I just might have a problem that you'd understand. We all need somebody to lean on.
If there is a load you have to bear that you can't carry,
I'm right up the road, I'll share your load if you just call me. Lean on me when you're not strong - and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.*

One: For the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, for all who are on our prayer list, for our loved ones, for world and community leaders and for our own needs, let us pray:

All: We ask for divine blessings. We believe that miracles are possible. We give thanks for grace equal to every need.

One: And with people all over the world we pray –
All: May peace prevail on earth.

These prayers we offer in the spirit of Jesus, son of Mary, and as he did we continue to pray:

Model Prayer

Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper
Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Respectful burial of the dead was very important in antiquity for pagans, Jews, and Christians. Above ground cemeteries existed on privately owned land, but early Christians were often not wealthy enough to be land owners. Underground burial, in the catacombs, was efficient and more affordable. Early Christians also made a connection with burial and Jesus. Since Jesus was buried, they found it comforting to bury their departed loved one as Jesus had been buried, and to hope for resurrection as they believed he had been resurrected.

The catacombs also provided a bit of privacy so that people could share memorial feasts with their departed loved ones, undisturbed (memorial meals were common at the time for people of various religions).

As the new religion, Christianity, started facing persecution, some legends say the Christians would hide in the catacombs, but since the locations and functions of the catacombs were well known, they might not have made good hiding places after all. What is known is that when it became dangerous to display Christian symbols publicly, believers would carve and paint them in the catacombs. The Good Shepherd, the Greek letters Chi and Rho, the Fish, and paintings of baptisms and the Resurrection could be found among the graves of the Christian dead. People would gather in the catacombs for various rituals, such as Holy Communion.

Above the remains of our Christian ancestors, in one of the oldest churches in continuous use in the world, Sunshine Cathedral in April 2022 celebrated the Eucharist in the catacombs. In the place where Christians would have partaken of the Lord's Supper as far back as the 2nd or 3rd century, surrounded by their graves and bits of their sacred art, a group from Sunshine Cathedral shared grape and grain in memory of Jesus.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

May 15: Claudine Whitaker (1892 – 1970) – Episcopal deaconess who became first a Divine Science and then Religious Science minister. She founded a church in Chicago which she led from 1943 to 1969. For much of that time she taught summer courses in Divine Science.

May 16: Thomas Troward (1847-1916) – Judge (in India) and New Thought pioneer, Troward influenced such thinkers as Emmet Fox and Religious Science founder Ernest Holmes. Troward believed that “Belief in limitation is the one and only thing that causes limitation.”

May 17: Blessed Josephine Bakhita (1869-1947)—Ex-slave and nun. Born in the African nation of Sudan, at the age of nine Bakhita was kidnapped and sold into slavery. Eventually she was bought by a family who took her back to Italy. Upon hearing the gospel she understood that God meant for her to be free. She went to court to gain her freedom, and then discovered that slavery was illegal in Italy! She was then baptized and took religious vows as a nun. She spent her life serving others, and became famous for her quiet faith.

May 20: Tehilla Lichtenstein (1893 – 1973) – co-founder with her husband, Morris, of the Society for Jewish Science (a metaphysical interpretation and application of Judaism). She was born in Jerusalem and immigrated to the U.S. when she was eleven. After her husband, a rabbi, died, Tehilla took over the leadership of the Society for Jewish Science, making her the first Jewish woman in the U.S. with her own pulpit, even though she was never ordained a rabbi.
