Magic

*Building your dream has to start now, There's no other road to take,
You won't make a mistake;
I'll be guiding you.*

*You have to believe we are magic.
Nothin' can stand in our way.
You have to believe we are magic.
Don't let your aim ever stray.*

*And if all your hopes survive,
Destiny will arrive;
I'll bring all your dreams alive
For you.
I'll bring all your dreams alive
For you.*

Sunshine Cathedral Affirmation

Sunshine Cathedral is a different kind of church where the past is past and the future has infinite possibilities.

The Call to Worship

*This is the day our God has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad in it!*

Service of Praise

Crucifer - Deacon Lydya Chapman

Processional Hymn We've A Story to Tell to the Nations

We've a story to tell to the nations that shall turn their hearts to what's right, a story of truth and mercy, a story of peace and light, a story of peace and light.

For the evening shall turn to dawning, and the dawning to noonday bright, and Christ's dominion shall come to earth, dominion of love and light.

We've a song to be sung to the nations that shall lift their hearts to our God, a song that shall conquer hatred and shatter the spear and sword, and shatter the spear and sword.

*For the evening shall turn to dawning, and the dawning
to noonday bright, and Christ's dominion shall come to earth, dominion of love and light.*

We've a message to give to the nations that our God won't leave us unloved for God sent the Christ to heal us, and show us that God IS love, and show us that God is love.

*For the evening shall turn to dawning, and the dawning
to noonday bright, and Christ's dominion shall come to earth, dominion of love and light.*

We've a witness to share with the nations that God is the presence of Love and the presence is ev'ry where always, within, around, above, within, around, above.

*For the evening shall turn to dawning, and the dawning
to noonday bright, and Christ's dominion shall come to earth, dominion of love and light.*

Opening Prayer

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

*May the Source of strength who blessed the ones before us help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing.
May the One who is the Source of all goodness continue to bestow goodness upon us.
Amen.*

Sung Response

O God Beyond All Praising

O God beyond all praising, we worship you today and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay;

For we can only wonder at every gift you send, at blessings without number and mercies without end:

*We lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word,
we honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.*

Please be seated.

Service of Proclamation

The Wisdom of Sadhguru

Rev Kevin Tisdol

You don't go to a guru for solace. [The Teacher] is not a tranquilizer, but is there to awaken you.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

The Wisdom of the Chandogya Upanishad

Rev Kevin Tisdol

You could have golden treasure buried beneath your feet, and walk over it again and again, yet never find it because you don't realize it is there. Just so, all beings live every moment in the City of the Divine, but never find the Divine because it is hidden by the veil of illusion.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

The Gospel According to Matthew (28.19-20)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Jesus said, "Go...make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of God, and God's Child, and God's spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the world."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response

My Prayer

If any little word of mine may make a life the brighter; if any little song of mine may make a heart the lighter, God help me speak the little word and take my bit of singing, and drop it in some lonely vale to set the echoes ringing!

If any little love of mine may make a life the sweeter; if any little care of mine may make a friend's life fleeter, if any lift of mine may ease the burden of another – God give me love and care and strength to help them even further.

Please be seated.

Prayer Chorus

Bless You for the Good That's In You

Peggy Lee & Mel Tormé

Bless you for the Good that's in you;

bless you every day.

There's some good in everybody;

we're just made that way.

Good morning, don't be miserable, you're not as bad as you make out.

That frown don't sit right, get right up and shout. And shout.

Bless you for the Good that's in you;

bless you every night.

If you shine like a love-light beacon

you'll make out all right

If any old trouble comes around today,

turn it around and chase it away.

Bless you for the good that's in

you, bless you every day

Bless you for the Good that's in you;

bless you every night.

If you shine like a love-light beacon

you'll make out all right

If any old trouble comes around today,

turn it around and chase it away.

Bless you for the good that's in

you, bless you every day

Bless you every day!

Pastoral Prayer and Affirmations

Sign of Peace

God is Calling

God is calling through the whisper of the Spirit's deepest sighs; through the thrill of sudden beauties that can catch us by surprise.

Flash of lightning, crash of thunder; hush of stillness, rush of wonder: God is calling – can you hear?

God is calling through the voices of our neighbors' urgent prayers: through their longing for redemption and for rescue from despair.

Place of hurt or face of needing; strident cry or silent pleading: God is calling – can you hear?

God is calling through the music of sublime and human arts: through the hymns of earth and angels, and the carols of our hearts.

Lift of joy and gift of singing; days and nights our praises ringing: God is calling – can you hear?

Rainbow Candle Lit Today

In Memory and Honor of all Sunshine Cathedral Members and Friends Affected or Infected by COVID-19

by
The Sunshine Cathedral Staff

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One : On the night of his arrest Jesus shared a meal with his friends and family of choice. After supper, he took a piece of bread, broke it, and offered it to those at table. Sharing together made them one body. Jesus said, "When you do this, (+) remember me."

One: He then took a cup of wine and shared it with the others. Sharing reminded them that they were bound together in a covenant of love. Jesus again said, "When you do this, (+) remember me."

Invitation to Communion

Rev Dr Robert Griffin

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

For Everyone Born, A Place at the Table

*For everyone born, a place at the table,
for everyone born, clean water and bread,
a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, a star overhead.*

*And God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace;
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice, and joy.*

*For everyone born, a place at the table,
to live without fear, and simply to be,
to work, to speak out, to witness and worship,
for everyone born, the right to be free.*

*And God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace;
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice, and joy.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Kevin Tisdol

Please rise as you are able.

The Prayer of Protection

*The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us.
The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.*

Benediction Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Final Song This Little Light of Mine

Commissioning

One: Our worship has ended. Let our service begin!

SunBurst Cathedral News

ANNUAL FALL HARVEST CAMPAIGN BEGINS – Every year we ask people to put aside one dollar a day for 99 days so that we can each give $99 above and beyond our usual giving the Sunday before Thanksgiving. This always helps us recover from slow summers and, along with the winter holiday extravaganzas, helps us end the year in the Black.

SOCIAL HALL HOSPITALITY RETURNS – Starting Sept 25 Social Hall Hospitality will be back! Just coffee and treats between 10 am and 10:30 am. This gives people leaving the first service and those coming to second service both a chance to have a little pick me up but also meet one another. There will also be a staff leader there for about 10 minutes to welcome everyone as well as our new Hospitality Host, Melody Fiore. If you're interested in helping Melody as a hospitality team member, just contact her or Rev. Kevin Tisdol. Another step toward post-pandemic normalcy.

GRASSROOTS MARKETING CAMPAIGN - Our Director of Communications, Darren Loli, is launching a grassroots (meaning cost-free!) promotion of Sunshine Cathedral in which our congregants, you, our local and global members, participate in a fun and funny meme messaging campaign. You will be sharing two aspects of Sunshine Cathedral that you enjoy most, but with a fun twist - A Meme! All you have to do is fill out a form and you will be provided with two images to share on social media. It is as simple as that. For more information, go to sunshinecathedral.org/marketing. For those in the room, there are also sign up sheets located at the exit and entrance.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

September 18: Dag Hammarskjöld (1905-1961)—Secretary General of the UN. A skilled Swedish diplomat, Hammarskjöld served for eight years as the head of the United Nations. He was a rare person in that public service was not a means to gain power, but a religious vocation, a way of living out his faith. He was deeply committed to the cause of world peace. His personal journal, Markings, published after his death, revealed his own inner struggles with finding meaning in life. What is still unknown to most people is that he was also a gay man.

September 20: Henri Nouwen (1932-1996)—Priest and spiritual guide. After ordination in his native Holland, Nouwen taught in the US at Notre Dame, Yale and Harvard. He was drawn toward monastic life, and became one of the most popular and influential spiritual writers of our time. He is thought to have confided in friends about a same-gender loving orientation.

September 21: John (Jack) S. Spong (1931 – 2021) – Progressive bishop in the Episcopal Church. Spong was an advocate for women's rights, for LGBTQ people, and for an expansive view of Christian doctrine. He rejected theism but not the mystery that we call "God". He loved and taught the bible but pointed out how it cannot always be taken literally, it shouldn't be read uncritically, and it is wrong to use it as a means to punish, control, exclude, or terrorize people. God, for Spong, calls us to live fully and love wastefully. Life, Love, & Being were words he often used for the God experience. He described Jesus as a God-filled person in whom many have encountered the divine. He embraced science, and valued religions other than his own while being fully committed to exploring and challenging his own. He ordained women and gays at a time when doing so was controversial. Spong suggested a rite of blessing for divorced people, and saw his role as bishop to be a teacher rather than a defender of traditions. At the time of his death he was the most published bishop in the history of his denomination.

Apostle Matthew—Evangelist. Matthew was a tax collector, and as such was part of a group that was hated for being collaborators with Rome. Tradition says Matthew traveled to the East, but we really know nothing of his life and death. Matthew's Gospel was probably written by an anonymous second generation Jewish Christian in a Greek community. 'Matthew' wrote the story of Jesus in a way that addressed the needs of the early church, a central concern to his gospel.

September 22: Maurice and Theofredus - martyrs. Soldiers of Thebes who shared a special bond. They are shown as a same-sex pair in Renaissance art. Maurice's feast day is Sept. 22 in the Catholic tradition and Dec. 27 in the Orthodox tradition. Theofredus is honored in the Orthodox faith on Sept. 7. Maurice is often shown as a Black knight in art.

John J. McNeill (1925 – 2015) – POW (WW2), author, therapist, spiritual director, theologian. "Father John" held a PhD in Theology and was highly regarded in the field of "Queer Theology." He was an "out" gay man ministering to LGBTQ people and people living with HIV/AIDS. He co-founded a chapter of "Dignity" (a ministry to/for LGBT Roman Catholics) in NYC. He taught at Fordham University and Union Theological Seminary and wrote several books affirming the LGBTQ community. For his gay activism, he was expelled (by then Cardinal Ratzinger, later to be known as Pope Benedict) from his Jesuit order. He remained a priest but was not allowed to say Mass in a Roman Catholic church. He spent his last years in Fort Lauderdale, an active parishioner at the Sunshine Cathedral. His husband, Charlie Chiarelli, was by Father John's side (as he had been for 46 years) when he died.

September 23: St. Padre Pio (1887 – 1968) – Pio was deeply religious even as a child. He also was very ill for much of his life. He had cancer which blessedly was cured with only two treatments, but other ailments such as arthritis would not be so miraculously relieved. He is the patron of Stress Relief. A famous saying of his is, "Pray. Hope. Don't worry." Many believed he exhibited the "Stigmata". It has also been said that he predicted the rise of Pope John Paul II three decades before it occurred.

September 24: Uell Stanley (U.S.) Andersen (1917 – 1986) – self-help and inspirational writer. Andersen believed that the physical world is derived from the mental. He believed that a sustained mental image, backed by faith, would become real in the realm of experience. His writings include Three Magic Words and The Magic in Your Mind. Anderson taught: "Everything which you can conceive and accept is yours! Entertain no doubt. Refuse to accept worry or hurry or fear. That which knows and does everything is inside you and harkens to the slightest whisper." He was influenced by the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, Emmanuel Swedenborg, and Edgar Cayce.

St. Anna Alexander (circa 1865 – September 24, 1947) - was the first and only African-American consecrated a Deaconess in the Episcopal Church. She served in the Episcopal Diocese of Georgia during her entire career, and may be remembered in the Calendar of saints on September 24. Non-clerical deaconesses were known from the time of the early Church through the 13th century and experienced a revival in the 18th and early 20th centuries and should not be confused with ordained deacons (whether women or men).
