Opening Prayer

(Litany of Queer Saints by Rev. Kittredge Cherry, abridged)

Durrell: God, thank you for the lives of the LGBTQ saints and martyrs. They shine forever in your rainbow light. May they inspire us to live with courage and loving hearts.

Anne: Saints of Stonewall, who performed the miracle of transforming self-hatred into pride, pray for us. May the saints of Stonewall continue to inspire all who seek justice and equality!

Robert: Saint Joan of Arc, fearless warrior and gender-queer martyr, pray for us.

Durrell: Saint Sergius and Saint Bacchus, male couple united in love and death, pray for us

Anne: Saint Perpetua and Saint Felicity, who shared a holy kiss before dying, patron saints of same-sex couples, pray for us.

Robert: Saint Mychal Judge, queer priest, first martyr of 9/11, pray for an end to violence against all people.

Kevin: Our Lady of the Rainbow, Mother of Diversity, we your LGBTQ children call on you. Wrap us in your rainbow mantle as Our Mother of Pride.

Durrell: St. Aelred, you found divine love through your friendships with other men. Draw many into your community of love, so that we might know divine love through loving one another.

Robert: Saint Pauli Murray, we join you in asking for a song of hope in a weary throat, and a world where we can sing it. Pray for us!

Durrell: Saint Brigid and saint Darlughdach, Celtic women soulmates, pray for us.

Kevin: Like Saint Bayard Rustin, may we stand up and speak out for our LGBTQ dreams.

Robert: Saint John, Beloved Disciple, apostle and evangelist who lay on Jesus' breast at the last supper, pray for us.

Anne: Saint Francis of Assisi, gender nonconformist who loved all creation without limits, pray for us.

Durrell: Saint Simeon Bachos the Ethiopian eunuch, who was welcomed by the early church as part of God's creative diversity, pray for us.

Anne: Saint Alan Turing, who ended war, saved millions and changed the world — martyred by the judiciary, pray for us.

Kevin: Dame Julian of Norwich, who celebrated "Mother Jesus," pray for gender fluidity.

Durrell: David and Jonathan, whose love was wonderful, surpassing the love of women in the Hebrew scriptures, pray for us.

Robert: Saint David Kato, Ugandan activist and resilient martyr, pray for us.

Anne: Saint Marsha P. Johnson, Stonewall instigator, revolutionary black trans activist, pray for us and come to greet us when our mortal life is over.

Kevin: Saint Valentine, help everyone to find and keep their true God-appointed love.

Robert: Saint Desmond Tutu, South Africa's strong LGBTQ ally who taught that racism and homophobia are connected, pray for us!

Anne: Saints Jeanne Manford and Adele Starr, mothers of gay sons and co-founders of PFLAG, thank you for the healing power of your great love!

Durrell: Saint Harvey Milk, martyred gay rights pioneer, pray for us.

Anne: Bygone Two-Spirit people, whose spirit lives on in our land, inspire us to reclaim gender diversity.

Robert: Saint Matthew Shepard, crucified by hate-filled men, young forever, pray for us.

Kevin: Pulse 49 Martyrs of Orlando, shielding those you loved with your own bodies, pray for us and lend us your courage.

Durrell: Martyrs of the UpStairs Lounge fire, whose memory burns in our hearts, pray for us.

Robert: All who have lived and died for love, peace and justice, pray for us.

Kevin: Jesus, friend and liberator of outcasts, tortured and killed on the cross for loving beyond limits, pray for us.

Anne: Prophets often get marginalized by the powers that be. Thank you, Holy Sophia (divine wisdom), for blessing and encouraging them to witness and reveal aspects of your sweet mercy and love!

Robert: All you LGBTQ Saints, named and unnamed, pray for us!

Durrell: Thank you, Great Teachers, as we continue to grow in knowledge of those who have gone before us. May you be surrounded by the Divine Light especially as we give thanks for you.

Kevin: On your shoulders we stand!

Anne: Blessed be your memory!

Durrell: May your rainbow light shine upon us!

Response

Threefold Amen

Amen. Amen. Amen.

Service of Proclamation

Wisdom of Agnes Barton Haskell

(New Thought, 1941) - Rev Dr Anne Atwell

"I believe the highest type of prayer is the contemplation of God. 'God is spirit.' 'Do I not fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.' 'For in God we live and move and have our being.'... 'The Lord is good.' 'God is love.'... 'With God all things are possible.' After meditation along this line, I [pray]...either for myself or anyone else who has asked my cooperation: 'God's glorious, wonderful, joyful, loving will be in you, through you, for you, by you and as you, now and always.'

If we can say with all our hearts, 'Thy will be done,' knowing that God's will for ALL [of God's] children includes the blessings we are seeking, then we truly can rejoice."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

The Gospel According to Luke (11.1-4, 9-13)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples."

Jesus said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Abba, hallowed be your name. Your dominion come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is in debt to us. And do not let us be tempted.'"

Jesus continued, "And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What parent among you would hand their child a snake when she asks for a fish? Or hand him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? If you...know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will God in heaven give the holy Spirit to those who ask for It?"

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response

The Prayer of Faith

God is my help in every need; God does my every hunger feed; God walks beside me, guides my way through every moment of the day.

I now am wise, I now am true. Patient, kind, and loving, too. All things I am, can do, and be, through Christ, the Truth that is in me.

Pastoral Prayer and Affirmations

Sign of Peace

God is Calling

God is calling through the whisper of the Spirit's deepest sighs; through the thrill of sudden beauties that can catch us by surprise.

Flash of lightning, crash of thunder; hush of stillness, rush of wonder: God is calling – can you hear?

God is calling through the voices of our neighbors' urgent prayers: through their longing for redemption and for rescue from despair.

Place of hurt or face of needing; strident cry or silent pleading: God is calling – can you hear?

God is calling through the music of sublime and human arts: through the hymns of earth and angels, and the carols of our hearts.

Lift of joy and gift of singing; days and nights our praises ringing: God is calling – can you hear?

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins
Rev Dr Robert Griffin
Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One: On the night you were betrayed you took the bread. After giving thanks you broke it and said, "This is my body, open to you, and when you eat this, (+) remember me."

Congregation: This is my body, open to you, and when you eat this remember me.

One: On the night you were betrayed you held the cup. After giving thanks you lifted it up, "This is my love, poured out for you, and as you drink this (+) remember me."

Congregation: This is my love, poured out for you, and as you drink this remember me.

One: So we thank you for the cup and for the bread; we recall the love you gave and the hope that you spread.

Congregation: And we remember, O heavenly Dove, Christ's deep compassion, and tender love. (x2)

It's been a long time, but my time is finally here.
And I will see my dream come alive at last.
I will touch the sky. And they're not gonna hold me down no more, no, they're not gonna change my mind.
'coz I've got faith of the heart.*

I'm going where my heart will take me. I've got faith to believe I can do anything.

I've got strength of the soul, and no one's gonna bend or break me.

*I can reach any star. I've got faith.
I've got faith, faith of the heart.*

A SORDID ADVENT - Join us on November 27 at 7 pm for a FREE showing of Sordid Lives.

In just the last couple of months the world has lost both Olivia Newton-John and Leslie Jordan, both of whom were in the cast of the film Sordid Lives.

To show this film at the beginning of Advent is meaningful because the first Sunday in Advent is dedicated to Hope and both Newton-John and Jordan offered hope throughout their careers. Dame Olivia Newton-John lived with cancer on and off for decades and survived two bouts of cancer before the third bout ended her life at 73.

In addition to being a living model of facing difficulties with hope and courage, she also worked to bring hope to Queer people as she was one of the first celebrities to advocate for marriage equality in Australia.

Leslie Jordan, who died at age 67, was a very "out" gay man who brought joy through comedy to people all over the world. He also brought comic relief to us in pandemic by taking to social media just to give us a few chuckles in lockdown.

Jordan frequently spoke about living in recovery. He would speak at Alcoholic Anonymous events to encourage large numbers of people seeking to remain in sobriety. Both Jordan and Newton-John played Queer characters in the film, Sordid Lives.

A gay man and a fierce straight ally, both of whom lived out loud to give people facing discrimination, illness, and addiction hope, were lost to us in 2022, but their work and their generosity live on. We happily begin our Season of Advent, on Hope Sunday, with a showing of Sordid Lives.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

October 30: Albert Grier (1864 – 1941) – a Universalist minister for 20 years before becoming Founder of the Church of Truth in 1912. He also was the pastor of a Divine Science congregation. He wrote in Truth and Life, “To the inward eye of faith no condition is hopeless.” Grier viewed Jesus as a teacher who demonstrated that the Christ Consciousness was within each of us, and by following Jesus’ teachings we could become aware of that indwelling Christ Consciousness and demonstrate it as Jesus did.

November 1: Feast of All Saints—The tradition of remembering all the saints together dates to the early history of the Church, which affirmed “the communion of saints” as the mystical Body of Christ, transcending both time and space. This collective feast reminds us that each of us has our own special gifts, and we are each called to do something holy for God.

November 2: All Souls Day— In some traditions there has been a distinction between remembering the official canonized saints on All Saints Day and commemorating those whose names are not on any calendar, but are cherished as models of faith, or are dearly loved family and friends. They, as well, are part of that great “cloud of witnesses” who encourage us in our spiritual journey.

November 3: St. Malachy (1094 – 1148) - Archbishop of Armagh. St. Malachy was the first native born Irish saint to be canonized. Malachy died in the arms of his soul-mate, St. Bernard of Clairvaux. Their monastic community called them a “two-fold treasure.” When they were reunited after being apart from work or travel, Bernard would “shower Malachy with kisses.” They died 5 years apart, but are buried together, wearing each other’s habits.

St. Martin de Porres (1570 – 1639) - The patron saint of mixed-race people, barbers, innkeepers, and public health workers. He was the son of a Spanish nobleman, Don Juan de Porres, and Ana Velázquez, a freed slave from Panama. He was a monk known for his charitable work. St. Rose of Lima was his friend. Legend attributes levitation (and other amazing feats) to him. In Santeria, he is known as Papa Candeló.

November 4: Agnes Sanford (1897 – 1982) - the daughter of Presbyterian missionaries and the wife of an Episcopal priest. She became a world renown healer, and taught that the bible was more than information...it contained the energy of faith which could work miracles. She believed that healing was possible if we would “pray down” our doubts and expect something good to happen. Sanford acknowledged that effective prayer principles were universal, not limited to any one religion and she firmly believed that “experience comes before theology.” Visualizing success, affirming our Good, giving thanks for our Good, imagining healing energy flowing through us, and quoting affirmative bible verses were among the prayer techniques she offered.

She believed the return of Christ had happened at Pentecost, and that Christ continues to return every time we extend love, kindness, or forgiveness in our world. Though her background was Protestant and her theology was very compatible with the New Thought movement, she also had charismatic experiences.

Larry Morris (d. 2015) – Divine Science minister (ordained through Brooks Divinity School), Dr. Morris held a PhD in Literature from the University of New Mexico (his focus was mystical literature). His spiritual influences were varied and included Beat poetry and J. Krishnamurti. Larry was the minister of Hillside Community Church in New Mexico and he authored the book, Easy Does It: Positive thoughts for Daily Living.
