Opening Litany

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

One: In a world with so much hatred and violence,
Many: We need spirituality that proclaims the sacred value of all people.

One: In a world with so much brutality and fear,
Many: We need spirituality that seeks justice, equity, and compassion in human relations.

One: In a world with so many persons abused and neglected,
Many: We need spirituality that calls us to accept one another and encourage one another to grow.

One: In a world with so much dogmatism and falsehood,
Many: We need spirituality that challenges us to a free and responsible search for truth and meaning.

One: In a world with so much tyranny and oppression,
Many: We need spirituality that affirms the right of conscience and the pursuit of restorative justice.

One: In a world with so much inequality and strife,
Many: We need spirituality that strives toward the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all.

One: In a world with so much environmental degradation,
Many: We need spirituality that advocates respect for the interdependent web of all existence - of which we are a part.

One: In a world with so much uncertainty and despair,
Many: We need spirituality that teaches our hearts to hope, and our hands to serve.

One: In this sanctified place and in this blessed community, may we embrace, develop, and share this healing spirituality.

Response

Threefold Amen

Amen. Amen. Amen.

Service of Proclamation

Wisdom of the philosopher

Imam Abu Hamid al-Ghazali

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

“Jesus passed by someone who had impaired vision, was unable to walk, had paralysis in parts of his body, and was disfigured from leprosy lesions. The person was saying, ‘Praise be to God who has healed me.’ Jesus asked him, ‘You there – what kind of affliction don’t you have?’ The man answered, ‘Spirit of God, I am in better condition than those who do not know God in their hearts.’ Jesus replied, ‘You are right about that; please, give me your hand.’ The man stretched out his hand and behold, his face and form were transformed into the most beautiful, for God cured him of his afflictions. Thereafter, he accompanied Jesus and worshiped with him.”

In these human words, God’s voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

The Gospel According to Matthew (8.2-3)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Suddenly, a man with leprosy approached, knelt before Jesus, and said, "Lord, if you choose to do so, you can make me clean." He stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I do choose. Be made clean." Immediately, his leprosy was cured.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response

The Prayer of Faith

God is my help in every need; God does my every hunger feed; God walks beside me, guides my way through every moment of the day.

I now am wise, I now am true. Patient, kind, and loving, too. All things I am, can do, and be, through Christ, the Truth that is in me.

Please be seated.

*Just as I am, I'm meant to be God is my life eternally
And Love divine embraces me O Light of God in me... in me.*

*Just as I am I'm whole and free Love, hope and joy are all for me And Truth affirms my dignity
O Light of God in me...in me.*

*Just as I am healed, prospered and blessed Grace frees me now from strife and stress and I receive Life's very best

Pastoral Prayer and Affirmations

Sign of Peace

Faith of the Heart

*It's been a long road, getting from there to here.
It's been a long time, but my time is finally here.
And I will see my dream come alive at last.
I will touch the sky. And they're not gonna hold me down no more, no they're not gonna hold me down.
'coz I've got faith of the heart.*

*I'm going where my heart will take me.
I've got faith to believe I can do anything.
I've got strength of the soul, and no one's gonna bend or break me.*

*I can reach any star.
I've got faith.
I've got faith, faith of the heart.*

Rainbow Candle Lit Today

In Memory and Honor of all
Sunshine Cathedral Members and Friends
Affected or Infected by COVID-19

by
The Sunshine Cathedral Staff

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Kurt Krieger & Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Many: Jesus took the bread, daily gift of God, formed of wheat and sweat and toil, sun, rain, and sod. In our hands we take gifts of bread and wine, gathered from the fields of earth, signs of love divine.

One: Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the essence of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the life of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.

One: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed and arrested, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this and (+) remember me."

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant of love...whenever you drink it, (+) remember me."

Many: Jesus gives the bread at our table still, gives the cup to those who seek God's loving will. Let us go in peace; let us freely give, sharing love with all the world daily as we live.

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

Prayer of Thanksgiving

DRAG BIBLE STORY HOUR! SPECIAL ADVENT SERIES – Save the dates: Nov 30, Dec 7, Dec 14, and Dec 21 at 7pm

Why are we doing this? Primarily, to have a fun experience of doing an Advent deep dive into scripture; but also, to make a statement in support of the Art of Drag, the Drag community, and the wholesomeness of Drag Story Hour. This is an act of holy defiance for the sake of justice, an homage to the righteous warriors of the Queer liberation movement, and a legitimate study of our sacred texts. Wednesdays in Advent in the Worship Center.

MEME MINISTRY – Help us promote Sunshine Cathedral by sharing a couple of memes. SAINTS OF THE WEEK

November 8: Archangel Uriel - Where a fourth archangel is added to Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (to represent the four cardinal points), Uriel is generally the fourth. Uriel is listed as the fourth by Gregory the Great, and in the angelology of Pseudo-Dionysius. Uriel appears in the Second Book of Esdras found in the Biblical apocrypha in which the prophet Ezra asks God a series of questions and Uriel is sent by God to address him. Uriel is often identified as the angel of repentance. Some believe him to be the one who "stands at the Gate of Eden with a fiery sword."

Ralph Waldo Trine (1866 – 1958) – philosopher and New Thought author lived to the age of 92. Attended the University of Wisconsin and earned a Master of Arts degree from Knox College. Taught at Emerson College and influenced E. W. Kenyon, the father of the "Word of Faith" movement. Trine was influenced by Emerson and Emmet Fox, and his principles were echoed by Napoleon Hill. Trine taught, "Never affirm or repeat about your health what you do not wish to be true." He also counseled: "To get up each morning with the resolve to be happy...is to condition circumstances instead of being conditioned by them."

Napoleon Hill (1883 - 1970) - Self-help guru and personal development expert, Hill was inspired by Dale Carnegie and Charles Haanel. Hill was an advisor to Presidents Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Hill believed fear and selfishness contribute to failure. He was one of the thinkers who inspired Norman Vincent Peale. His books include The Law of Success, Think and Grow Rich, and Success Through a Positive Mental Attitude. Hill believed, "Every adversity, every failure, every heartache carries with it the seed of an equal or greater benefit." His most famous saying may be, "Whatever your mind can conceive and believe, [it] can achieve, regardless of how many times you have failed in the past."

November 9: Martyrs of Kristallnacht (1938)—Victims of anti-Semitism. As part of the buildup to what became the "final solution," the Nazis mounted a coordinated assault on the entire Jewish community of Germany. In one night the storm troopers burned down 191 synagogues, destroyed 7,500 shops, rounded up 20,000 Jewish men for "protective custody" at Buchenwald concentration camp, and killed 100 Jews. The pogrom became known as Kristallnacht, or Crystal Night, for all the broken windows. There was virtually no protest outside of Germany to this action.

November 10: Grant-Michael Fitzgerald (1947 – 1986) - gay African American Roman Catholic brother who advocated for LGBTQ rights in the 1970s and '80s. He was diagnosed with AIDS and died in Wisconsin at age 39.

November 11: Søren Kierkegaard (1813-1855)—Philosopher. A prolific author whose writings were important in the development of Existentialism, Kierkegaard barely saw himself a Christian. He devoted himself to exposing official Christianity, and especially the Church of Denmark, as fraudulent. He originally planned to go into the Lutheran ministry, but instead chose a life of introspection and writing. Compared with the New Testament, he charged, official Christianity was nothing more than play-acting.

Daisy Baum (1856 – 1923) – an early teacher of and writer about Divine Science. She personally overcame an anxiety disorder through the principles of New Thought healing. The following is from a prayer from her book, Individual Responsibility: “[God], I acknowledge thy loving goodness everywhere, even within myself. Thou art the Life that animates me. Thou art the Power that sustains me. Thou art the Wisdom that heals me. Thou art the Love that surrounds me. I rest in, and trust thy unfailing Intelligence to guide me in all my ways...”

November 12: Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz (1651-1694)—Poet and scholar. Born near Mexico City to an unwed mother, Sister Juana had a passion for learning that led to her becoming the first great poet of Latin America and early champion of equality for women in the church.

A SORDID ADVENT - Join us on November 27 at 7 pm for a FREE showing of Sordid Lives.

In just the last couple of months the world has lost both Olivia Newton-John and Leslie Jordan, both of whom were in the cast of the film Sordid Lives.

To show this film at the beginning of Advent is meaningful because the first Sunday in Advent is dedicated to Hope and both Newton-John and Jordan offered hope throughout their careers. Dame Olivia Newton-John lived with cancer on and off for decades and survived two bouts of cancer before the third bout ended her life at 73.

In addition to being a living model of facing difficulties with hope and courage, she also worked to bring hope to Queer people as she was one of the first celebrities to advocate for marriage equality in Australia.

Leslie Jordan, who died at age 67, was a very "out" gay man who brought joy through comedy to people all over the world. He also brought comic relief to us in pandemic by taking to social media just to give us a few chuckles in lockdown.

Jordan frequently spoke about living in recovery. He would speak at Alcoholic Anonymous events to encourage large numbers of people seeking to remain in sobriety. Both Jordan and Newton-John played Queer characters in the film, Sordid Lives.

A gay man and a fierce straight ally, both of whom lived out loud to give people facing discrimination, illness, and addiction hope, were lost to us in 2022, but their work and their generosity live on. We happily begin our Season of Advent, on Hope Sunday, with a showing of Sordid Lives.
