Processional Hymn

Alleluia, Good is Coming

(by Durrell Watkins 2022, Tune: AR HUD Y NOS, NCH 92)

Alleluia, Good is coming, Advent declares.

Hope and peace, and joy, and love, too, heal all our cares.

Jesus is the Christ, anointed, living Word he was appointed,

Our wayshower, friend and teacher, he'll always be.

Alleluia, Good is coming, says the season.

*God is good and omnipresent, so, we reason,
That God is the all in all, now; Jesus shows God with us all, now.*

We cannot be lost or lonely, if God's with us.

Alleluia, Good is coming, this is God's will.

Angels singing, praises ringing, hearts can't be still.

Life is good and meant to be good, embrace now all that's for our good,

Elder brother Jesus tells us, God loves us all.

Opening Prayer (Henri Nouwen, adapted)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Lord Jesus,

Send your holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas.
We who have so much to do and seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day,

We who tend to be anxious over many things look forward to rediscovering the Christ within us.

We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kin-dom.

We whose hearts are sometimes heavy seek the joy of your message.

We are your people; we wish for our light to shine as yours so brilliantly did.

To you we say, "Come Lord Jesus!"

Amen.

Sung Response

Adeste Fideles

*Adeste, fideles, laeti triumphantes,

*Sing, choir of angels, sing in exultation,
O sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
glory to God, all glory in the highest.*

*Venite, adoremus,
venite, adoremus,
venite, adoremus dominum.*

Please be seated.

Service of Proclamation

The wisdom of the Prophet Habakkuk

(1.1-3, 2.1-3, 3.17-19)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

This is the oracle that the prophet Habakkuk received in a vision.

How long, O Lord, must I cry for help while you do not listen? I cry out to you, "Violence!" but you refuse to intervene. Why do you make me witness wrongdoing...?

Destruction and violence confront me, strife is everywhere, and discord abounds. I will stand at my post and take up my position on the rampart, and keep watch to see what God will say to me and what answer God will offer to my complaints.

God finally answered me and said: "Write down the vision inscribe it clearly on tablets so that it can be read easily. For the vision is for the appointed time; it will speak of the end, and it will not lie. If it delays in coming, wait for it, for it will surely come before too long."

And so, even though the fig tree does not blossom and there is no fruit on the vines, even though the olive crop will fail and the orchards will yield no food, even though the flock is cut off from the fold and there is no herd in the stalls, I will continue to rejoice in the Lord, and exult in the God of my salvation.

The Lord God is my strength; God makes my feet as swift as those of a deer and enables me to tread on the heights.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A Reading from Matthew's Gospel (26.36-38)

Rev Kevin Tisdol

Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, "Sit here while I go over there to pray." He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and he began to suffer grief and anguish.

Then he said to them, "My soul is sorrowful, even to the point of death. Remain here and keep watch with me."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Confession

Deacon Ed Huckemeyer

Advent is a penitential season. Therefore, let us say together:

Congregation:

*For those I may have wronged, I ask for forgiveness.
For those I may have helped, I wish I had done more.
For those I neglected to help, I ask for understanding.
To those who helped me, I thank you with all my heart.
Amen.*

Eucharistic Intentions

Deacon Ed Huckemeyer

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and location congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One: In the upper room, before being arrested, Jesus sat at table with friends for a Passover meal. After supper, he took a piece of leftover bread and asked that his friends remember him when sharing the ritual meal. Then he took Elijah's cup, and likewise asked that in future, during the feast, he be remembered.

Sung Response

*Cup of blessing that we share, does it not our faith declare?
Is it not in gratitude, that we take this sacred food?*

As one body, we are fed, Love we share, one Cup, one Bread.

Is it not one bread we break? Of God's goodness all partake.

*Casting out distrust and fear, let us love with hearts sincere!
One by God's design are we: let us live in unity.*

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and with your captive children dwell. Give comfort to all exiles here, and to the aching heart bid cheer. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Love to dwell.

O come, you Splendor very bright, as joy that never yields to might. O come, and turn all hearts to peace, that greed and war at last shall cease. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Truth to dwell.

O come, you Dayspring, come and cheer our spirits by our presence here. And dawn in every broken soul as vision that can see the whole. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Light to dwell.

O come, you Wisdom, from on high, from depths that hide within a sigh, to temper knowledge with our care, to render every act a prayer. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Hope to dwell.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Dr Robert Griffin

Noisy Offering

Please rise as you are able.

The Prayer of Protection

*The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us.
The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.*

Benediction

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Final Song

Lean on Me

*Some times in our lives we all have pain, we all have sorrow.
But if we are wise we know that there's always tomorrow.*

*Lean on me when you're not strong – and I'll be your friend,
I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.*

Please swallow your pride if I have things you need to borrow. But no one can fill those of your needs that you won't let show.

Lean on me when you're not strong – and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.

Just call on me dearest when you need a hand. We all need somebody to lean on. I just might have a problem that you'd understand. We all need somebody to lean on.

If there is a load you have to bear that you can't carry, I'm right up the road, I'll share your load if you just call me.

Lean on me when you're not strong – and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.

Commissioning

One: Our worship has ended. Let our service begin!
All: Thanks be to God!

DRAG BIBLE STORY HOUR! SPECIAL ADVENT SERIES

– Save the dates: Nov 30, Dec 7, Dec 14, and Dec 21 at 7 pm.

Why are we doing this? Primarily, to have a fun experience of doing an Advent deep dive into scripture; but also, to make a statement in support of the Art of Drag, the Drag community, and the wholesomeness of Drag Story Hour. This is an act of holy defiance for the sake of justice, an homage to the righteous warriors of the Queer liberation movement, and a legitimate study of our sacred texts. Wednesdays in Advent in the Worship Center.

A GLORIOUS HOLIDAY – Sunshine Cathedral's annual holiday concert this year is titled "A Glorious Holiday." It will feature the Sunshine Cathedral Music Ministry, music staff and volunteers, vocals and instruments, choir and solos. December 3 at 7 pm.

ADVENT FOOD COLLECTION - The Sunshine Cathedral Food Sharing Ministry is going to provide holiday food bags to our clients and we need your help. Please consider donating non-perishable food items that can be included in the holiday bags. The collection will begin on Sunday, November 27 and will run through the Advent season. Please see any Loaves and Fishes Team Member for a list of suggested items. And if you have any questions about the Food Sharing Ministry, please contact Rev. Anne at anne@sunshinecathedral.net or 954-462-2004 ext. 208.

ADVENT - Advent is a season of the liturgical year observed in most Christian denominations as a time of expectant waiting and preparation for both the celebration of the Nativity of Christ at Christmas and the return of Christ (sometimes called "second coming"). At Sunshine Cathedral, we suggest that "we" are the return of Christ, those of us who, in his name, share the good news of God as love and who seek to demonstrate love by working for justice, showing compassion, and by living humbly before the mysteries of life.

SOCIAL HALL HOSPITALITY – Coffee and treats are available between 10 am and 10:30 am in the Social Hall.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

November 27: Charles Haanel (1866 – 1949) – author of The Master Key System, a book that laid out principles that Napoleon Hill credited with helping him succeed in his work. Haanel taught: "There is a world within — a world of thought and feeling and power; of light and life and beauty; and, although invisible, its forces are mighty." Haanel is quoted in the popular self-help book, The Secret.

Harvey Milk (1931-1978) — First openly gay elected official (USA). Milk ran for a seat as a City Supervisor in San Francisco in order to stand for the rights of people without a voice — blue collar workers, the elderly, racial minorities, and especially gays and lesbians. He expected he would die violently, and was shot five times at close range by another politician angered at his stand for gays. That night 40,000 people took to the streets in a candle light vigil outside City Hall. He is remembered because, as Cardinal Juan Fresno of Chile said, "Whosoever stands up for human rights stands up for the rights of God."

November 28: James Allen (1864 – 1912) – best known for his book As a Man Thinketh, which has been mass produced since its original publication in 1903. His work is still lauded by motivational speakers and inspirational writers. Allen counseled: “[One’s] mind may be likened to a garden, which may be intelligently cultivated or allowed to run wild.”

November 29: Dorothy Day (1897-1980) — Prophet of social justice. Despite the fact she held no official position in the Catholic church, and that her thoughts were mostly rejected in her life, it was said at her death that she was “the most influential, interesting, and significant figure” in the history of American Catholicism. Committed to social justice and pacifism, she founded a lay movement, the Catholic Worker movement, which sought to live out the radical gospel commandment of love in the social and political realm by embracing voluntary poverty.

November 30: Apostle Andrew (First Century) – Patron of Scotland.

Oscar Wilde: Oscar Fingal O’Flaherty Wills Wilde (16 October 1854 – 30 November 1900) was an Irish poet, playwright, and great wit. He is best remembered for the novel, The Picture of Dorian Gray, the play, The Importance of Being Earnest, and the circumstances of his criminal conviction for “gross indecency” for a consensual homosexual relationship with Lord Alfred “Boise” Douglas, imprisonment, and early death from meningitis at age 46. He converted from Anglicanism to Roman Catholicism on his death bed (he had been fascinated by Catholicism for a while). Wilde’s lover, Lord Alfred, was the one who coined “the love that dare not speak its name” as a euphemism for homosexuality.

December 1: World AIDS Day—Since 1988 this day has been a time for remembering those who have died and for renewing our commitment to support those living with HIV throughout the world. The red ribbon, which began as a “grass roots” effort, has become an international symbol of AIDS awareness.

December 3: Mary Baker Eddy (1821 – 1910): Author of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures and Founder of the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston. Also the leading figure in the Christian Science movement. Mrs. Eddy said, “To those leaning on the sustaining infinite, today is big with blessings.”

Freda Smith (1935 – 2019) – first woman to be licensed and ordained as clergy in Metropolitan Community Churches, first woman to serve on the Council of Elders in MCC, and the person who led the effort to make denominational bylaws gender inclusive. Her most famous sermon was “Purple Grass” about a lamb that was shunned for preferring purple grass to the more common green grass, but the Shepherd affirmed the lamb and assured it that it was loved just as it was. She was also known for a provocative performance piece, “Dear Dora/ Derek, Dangerous Diesel Dyke.”

December 4: St. Barbara (d. 306) – Barbara, a pagan, embraced the Christian faith and dedicated herself to serving the Lord as a consecrated virgin. Her father tried to arrange marriages for her but she always refused. Her father had a bathhouse built for her. It became a place of healing. St. Simeon Metaphrastes compared it to the stream of Jordan.

In time, Barbara ran away from her father but he found her (with the help of a shepherd who, as a result of his helping to capture Barbara, found his flocks, according to legend, turned to locusts) and locked her away. Still she would not marry nor renounce her newfound faith. Prayer gave her the strength to endure her trials.

Finally, Barbara was condemned to death by beheading by her father. Her martyrdom took place on December 4th. Soon after, her father was struck by lightning.

A SORDID ADVENT - Join us tonight at 6 pm for a FREE showing of Sordid Lives.

In just the last couple of months the world has lost both Olivia Newton-John and Leslie Jordan, both of whom were in the cast of the film Sordid Lives.

To show this film at the beginning of Advent is meaningful because the first Sunday in Advent is dedicated to Hope and both Newton-John and Jordan offered hope throughout their careers. Dame Olivia Newton-John lived with cancer on and off for decades and survived two bouts of cancer before the third bout ended her life at 73.

In addition to being a living model of facing difficulties with hope and courage, she also worked to bring hope to Queer people as she was one of the first celebrities to advocate for marriage equality in Australia.

Leslie Jordan, who died at age 67, was a very “out” gay man who brought joy through comedy to people all over the world. He also brought comic relief to us in pandemic by taking to social media just to give us a few chuckles in lockdown.

Jordan frequently spoke about living in recovery. He would speak at Alcoholic Anonymous events to encourage large numbers of people seeking to remain in sobriety. Both Jordan and Newton-John played Queer characters in the film, Sordid Lives.

A gay man and a fierce straight ally, both of whom lived out loud to give people facing discrimination, illness, and addiction hope, were lost to us in 2022, but their work and their generosity live on. We happily begin our Season of Advent, on Hope Sunday, with a showing of Sordid Lives.
