Service of Proclamation

Acts of the Apostles

(10.1-17, New Catholic Bible) - Rev Dr Anne Atwell

In Caesarea, there was a man named Cornelius who was a Roman centurion. He was a devout [believer in the Hebrew God], as were all the members of his household. He gave alms generously to the people and prayed constantly...

One afternoon about three o'clock, he had a vision in which he clearly saw an angel of God approaching him and calling to him, "Cornelius!" He stared at him in terror and asked, "What is it, Lord?"

The angel said, "Your prayers and acts of charity have ascended as a memorial offering before God. Now send someone to Joppa and summon a man named Simon, who is also called Peter... When the angel who spoke to him had departed, he summoned two of his servants and a devout soldier on his staff. He told them all that had happened and sent them to Joppa.

About noon the next day, as they were on their way and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry and wanted something to eat, but while it was being prepared, he fell into a trance. He then saw heaven opened and something that looked like a large sheet descending, being lowered to the ground by its four corners. In it were all kinds of four-footed animals as well as reptiles and birds of the air.

A voice then said to him, "Get up, Peter! Kill and eat!" But Peter said, "Certainly not, Lord. For I have never eaten anything profane or unclean.” The voice spoke again to him, for a second time, “What God has made clean, you must not call profane.” This happened three times, and then immediately the object was taken up into heaven again.

While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision he had seen, suddenly the men who were sent by Cornelius appeared. They had asked for directions to Simon’s house, and now they were standing at the entrance.

In these human words, God’s voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

Acts of the Apostles

(10.34-48, New Catholic Bible) - Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Then Peter addressed them: “I now understand how true it is that God has no favorites, but that in every nation all those who [revere] God and do what is right are acceptable...

[God] sent [God’s own] word to the children of Israel and proclaimed the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is the Lord of all.

“You are well aware of what was proclaimed all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism of John, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Spirit and with power. He went around doing good and healing all those who were oppressed by [evil], for God was with him.

“We are witnesses to everything he did in the countryside and in Jerusalem. He was put to death...but God raised him to life...He commanded us to preach to the people and to bear witness that he is the one designated by God as Judge of the living and the dead...

While Peter was still speaking, the holy Spirit descended upon all who were listening to his message. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astonished that the gift of the holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also. For they heard them speaking in tongues and proclaiming the greatness of God.

Peter said further, “Can anyone withhold the water of baptism from these people who have received the holy Spirit just as we have?” Then he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

In these human words, God’s voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response

*How Could Anyone
(Singing the Journey)*

How could anyone ever tell you - you were anything less than beautiful?

How could anyone ever tell you - you were less than whole?

How could anyone fail to notice that your loving is a miracle?

How deeply you’re connected to my soul.

Please be seated.

You are my hiding place, you always fill my heart with songs of deliverance whenever I am afraid, I will trust in you.

Eucharistic Intentions

Rev Kurt Krieger

One: We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and location congregation. Christ lives in story, in ritual, and in our lives as we remember Jesus at this table. And so, with Eastertide gladness, let us sing together:

*Let the victor's people sing, alleluia!
Where, O death, is now your sting? Alleluia!
Dying once, Christ lives today, alleluia!
Where your victory, O grave? Alleluia!*

Intercessions

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: Spirit of Community, in which we share and find strength and common purpose, we turn our minds and hearts toward one another seeking to bring into our circles of concern all who need our love and support:

those who are ill, those who are in pain, either in body or in spirit, those who are lonely, those who have been wronged

We call to mind leaders of nations.

We seek to bless our Sunshine Cathedral and all who have requested our prayers.

We remember also our (+) dearly departed, thankful that they live on in our hearts and love.

We are part of a web of life that makes us one with all humanity, one with all the universe.

We are grateful for the miracle of consciousness that we share, the consciousness that gives us the power to remember, to love, to care.

And with people all over the world we pray –
All: May peace prevail on earth.

One: These prayers we offer in the spirit of Jesus, son of Mary, and as he did we continue to pray:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: On the night of his arrest, Jesus shared a Passover meal with his closest companions.

He compared sharing bread to being a body where many parts work together within and as a whole.

He compared a memorial cup to the life-blood of a ministry dedicated to justice-love.

And he asked that when such a meal was shared again, that he be remembered (+), so that his life and love would be present in their blessed memories.

All: We remember. We share. We give thanks. We summon hope. We are one. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

*Standing on the Side of Love
(Singing the Journey)*

*The promise of the Spirit: faith, hope and love abide.
And so ev'ry soul is blessed and made whole; truth in our hearts is our guide.
We are standing on the side of love: hands joined together as hearts beat as one.
Emboldened by faith, we dare to proclaim we are
standing on the side of love.*

*Sometimes we build a barrier to keep love tightly bound.
Corrupted by fear, unwilling to hear, denying the beauty
we've found.
We are standing on the side of love: hands joined
together as hearts beat as one.
Emboldened by faith, we dare to proclaim we are
standing on the side of love.*

*A bright new day is dawning when love will not divide.
Reflections of grace in ev'ry embrace, fulfilling the vision divine.
We are standing on the side of love: hands joined together as hearts beat as one.
Emboldened by faith, we dare to proclaim we are
standing on the side of love.
We are standing on the side of love.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Dr Robert Griffin

Please rise as you are able.

The Prayer of Protection

*The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us.
The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.*

Benediction

NEW SUNSHINE CATHEDRAL AFFIRMATION – many years ago, our opening affirmation was, "Here at the Sunshine Cathedral we are seekers and students of Truth, empowered by Spirit, sharing the Light with the world." For the last 15 years or so, our affirmation has been, "Sunshine Cathedral is a different kind of church, where the past is past and the future has infinite possibilities." Our new affirmation more fully tells the world what to expect from a Sunshine Cathedral experience. Our new opening affirmation is:

"Sunshine Cathedral is a different kind of church where:
*Our God is love. *Kindness is our worship. *Compassion is our prayer. *The sacred value of all people is our creed; and *Healing the hurts caused by hatred is our mission.

SOCIAL HALL HOSPITALITY – Coffee and treats between 10 am and 10:30 am. This gives people leaving the first service and those coming to second service both a chance to have a little pick me up and also meet one another.

PRAYING FOR LOVED ONES (by Rev. Dr. Durrell Watkins) Realizing that "God shows no partiality" and that divine love excludes no one, and that not every prayer leads to desired results, and that it can even be insensitive to categorize our good fortune as "blessings" or "miracles" when others did not experience the same "lucky" breaks, someone recently asked me if I think it is wrong to ask God to help our loved ones. The short answer is, "of course not." If the prayer gives us comfort or hope, then who could quibble with that? And anyway, such prayers are really expressions of love and good wishes, and for all I know, love and good wishes have almost magical properties that can influence outcomes in life.

If we think of prayer as energy and our minds as conduits through which that energy can flow and reach those for whom we pray, then that may prove to tip the scales as well, at least on occasion.

And if consciousness is non-local, and I'm pretty sure that it is, then we are all connected and our prayers for one another are like an energy hug, and hugs in any form can have a healing, comforting effect. Oh, I believe in prayer and have benefited from it my whole life.

What I don't want us to do is to confuse the cries of our hearts for theology, that is, if I ask God to intervene (as one might even if one doesn't normally think of God as likely to intervene), that is about my longing and not about how God operates in our world.

Rather than asking God to intervene, celebrating then when things go our way and doing mental gymnastics to keep our faith when they don't (or, perhaps more painfully, losing our faith entirely), I would rather think of prayer as a way that we express love.

Yes, love can work miracles; I would argue that love itself is a miracle. But our prayers, our spiritual hugs, need not be about a God who says yes sometimes and no at other times.

God, in my current understanding and experience, is ultimate reality, the ground of being, all that is, the whole that is greater than the sum of its parts (we are among the parts), the eternal and omnipresent power of love - which is the power to care, to embrace, to bear witness, to include, perhaps even to influence, but that never excludes anyone, never forces anything, and never plays favorites among us. Optimism can make a difference, but expecting a deity beyond us to help some of us sometimes tends to infantilize us, lead us to blaming the victim when people of faith suffer, and can even bring us great grief when the mighty Olympians seem to ignore or abandon us.

I believe in prayer. I appreciate prayer. And, one of the healing benefits of the prayer journey is learning to pray in ways that don't reinforce victimhood, that don't necessitate defending God when the magic doesn't work, and that leaves us somehow empowered and comforted no matter how things turn out.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

April 23: Cesar Chavez (1927-1993)—Farmworker. Raised in a family of Mexican-American migrant workers, Chavez transformed a local labor struggle into a moral cause that challenged the conscience of the nation. He was committed to absolute nonviolence, and was supported by many religious leaders. Inspired by a priest who gave him a passion for justice, and a community activist who taught him how to organize, he became the driving force in founding the United Farmworkers Union.

April 25: St. Mark the Evangelist—Evangelist. The writer of the oldest gospel in our canon. Mark's gospel was written around 70 CE.

April 27: Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803 – 1882) - American essayist, philosopher, poet, and leader of the Transcendentalist movement in the early 19th century. His teachings directly influenced the growing New Thought movement of the mid-1800s. Emerson wisely noted, "A person will worship something, have no doubt about that. We may think our tribute is paid in secret in the dark recesses of our hearts, but it will come out. That which dominates our imaginations and our thoughts will determine our lives, and our character. Therefore, it behooves us to be careful what we worship, for what we are worshipping, we are becoming." Referring to divine unity and omnipresence,

Emerson wrote, “the currents of the Universal Being circulate through me; I am part and parcel of God.”

April 28: Oskar Schindler (1908-1974) —“Righteous Gentile.” Schindler was a German industrialist who made a fortune on the labor of Jews in his factory. Although raised as a Catholic, he was not religious. For reasons which have never been clear, and at great personal risk, he used his power and influence to save the lives of 1,100 men, women, and children during WW2. At the end of the war he was impoverished. Today he is buried in Jerusalem at Yad Vashem (Holocaust Memorial) among the “Righteous Gentiles.”

April 29: St. Catherine of Siena (1347-1380)—Doctor of the Church. An Italian mystic, teacher, and nun, Catherine devoted herself to serving the poor and sick around her. She experienced ecstatic visions and was believed to have received the sign of the stigmata.

PRAY WITH US – Monday through Saturday at Noon Eastern we have Midday Prayer on the Sunshine Cathedral Facebook page.
